Former Chicago Police Sergeant, C. L. Burch Dies

Lake Marie and Berwyn Resident Passes Away After Week's Illness

Friends of the family learned with deep regret of the death last Thursday of C. L. Burch, 1830 Wesley avenue, Berwyn. The Burches spent their summers at Lake Marie, and had many friends in this community.

The deceased was a retired Chicago police sergeant. He is survived by his wife, nee Carlene Webber; two daughters, Mrs. Leona Paulan and Mrs. Edith Wolpert; a son, Lt. Roger L. Burch of the U. S. Army, and four grandchildren.

Services were held Monday, March 20, from the chapel at 124-126 Madison and Lombard avenue, Oak Park, under the auspices of Fladles Lodge No. 478, A. F. and A. M. Burial was at Forest Home.

Mr. Burch had been ill for only a week preceding his death, but had been in poor health following an attack of pneumonia about a year ago. He was affiliated with the Police Brotherhood association.

"A" Gasoline Coupons Must Last 3 Months

In order to accommodate a larger number of persons, including summer residents, in the Antioch-Lake Villa rationing board territory, it has been decided to change the meeting night of the board from Wednesday evening to Friday evening, effective March 31.

Commencing yesterday, "A" gasoline rationing coupons must last for three months instead of two months, rationing boards in all states west of the Allegheny mountains have announced. The coupons will, however, still be good for three gallons each, although by extending the time limit the effect will be that of cutting the gasoline allotment one-third, bringing it on a par with that of the eastern seaboard states.

Effective April 1, it is announced, "R" coupons used by farmers will be confined to wholesale purchases made by them from distributors, and will not be honored at filling stations. The "E" coupons for off-highway usage will still be honored at filling stations.

HOLDERS OF "B" ration coupons may apply to rationing boards for coupons to make up the gasoline lost through the "A" ration cut.

Evelyn Strahan and Armand Dalgaard United in Marriage

Sgt. Armand Dalgaard and his bride, the former Miss Evelyn Strahan, to whom he was united in marriage at a quiet ceremony Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Antioch Methodist church, left Wednesday morning for Ft. Bliss, Texas, where the bridegroom is stationed.

Sgt. Dalgaard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Dalgaard of Antioch. During the past three years he has been in the service of the United States Army, here and overseas. Before entering the army he was associated with his father in the grocery business in Antioch.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Strahan of Zion, Ill. She is a graduate of Warren Township High school at Gurnee and of the State Teachers' college at DeKalb, Ill. At the time of her marriage she was teaching at Russell, Ill.

For the ceremony she wore a green suit with an orchid corsage. Miss Mildred Krusa, who attended her as bridesmaid, wore a gold-color suit. Winsor Dalgaard, who recently returned from service with the U. S. Navy as an aviation cadet, acted as best man for his brother.

Mrs. Helen Carlson sang "I Love You Truly" and "My Hero." Hans Von Hoiwede played the wedding march and accompanied Mrs. Carlson. The Rev. W. C. Hensieck presided at the services, which were attended by immediate relatives and intimate friends of the two families.

A reception for 20 guests was held Sunday in Hovens' "Colony House" at Rock Lake.

INTERNAL REVENUE OFFICE HOURS ARE BEING CHANGED

Commencing this week, offices for the collection of internal revenue will be open from 8:30 a. m. to 5:15 p. m., rather than from 9 a. m. to 5:45 p. m., Carter H. Harrison, collector, announced. The main office is located in the United States Courthouse, Chicago.

Generous Response Meeting Red Cross Drive, Says Leader

Citizens of Antioch township are responding generously to the American Red Cross drive, Roman B. Vos, campaign chairman, announces.

The local quota has not been met, however, Vos states, and he asks that those who have not contributed plan to do so this week so that the committees may complete their reports as soon as possible.

Persons who have not been contacted may notify Vos or Mrs. A. P. Bratrude, or any committee worker located in their area.

News of the Boys in Service

HARRY WEBER QUALIFIES AS ARMY AVIATION CADET

Harry Joseph Weber, 25, of Lake Villa, has qualified as an army aviation cadet, according to word received from the U. S. Army Aviation Cadet Examining board at 166 West Van Buren street, Chicago (4), Ill.

Weber, who has been employed at the Johnson-Outboard Motor plant in Waukegan, is married. He and his wife, Charlotte, have a son, Robert Richard, who is six months old. His father, John Weber of Chicago, is in the employ of the Santa Fe railroad. He has a brother, Sgt. Robert Weber, serving with the army and at present stationed at Teaneck, N. J.; a brother-in-law, S/Sgt. Henry Bennecke, is with the army air forces in England, and a brother-in-law, Charles Bennecke, fireman third class, is in the navy at Norfolk, Va.

He attended Deerfield-Shield and Waukegan Township high schools and was on the track team. His hobbies include woodcraft, golf and photography.

ROBERT H. PEDERSON'S COMMISSION ANNOUNCED

Official notice has been received that Robert H. Pedersen, Route 2, Antioch, received his commission as second lieutenant at Altus Field, Okla.

"Bob" was a visitor to the Antioch News office recently, while on leave after receiving his commission. He is a son of the Alfred Pedersen, Hwy. 173.

T/Sgt. William Gerber's new address on the New York APO list has been received.

Earl Pape, S 1/e, finds time to wish that—

"Everyone back there is feeling as good as I am, because I am still in the pink and hope to stay that way. There isn't much news out here that you people don't already know. I haven't written to you in such a long time that I thought it was about time I did.

"I want to thank the people back there in Antioch for the Christmas cards that they sent to me and also the paper and the Antioch Legion for what they sent.

"I saw Walter Simonsen's address in the list and I am looking for him. I sure would like to see him again. I haven't had a News for some time, but suppose I will get them all at once. That is the way they usually come. I always read them from the front to the end."

CHARLES ANDERSON IS MADE TECHNICAL SGT.

The promotion of Charles Anderson, 19 Orchard street, Antioch, from the grade of staff sergeant to technical sergeant was recently announced "somewhere in England," by the Eighth Air Force.

Anderson, who was a sheet metal worker before entering the service, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Anderson, Orchard street.

He is a radio operator on a Flying Fortress and has more than five bombing missions over enemy territory to his credit.

Robert J. Sheehan, coxswain, naval construction battalion, sends a postcard of the Ventura, Calif., county court house and says, "Thanks for the newspaper. It is like meeting a friend from home. I am sending you my new address. I was transferred from Norfolk, Va., to Port Hueneine, Calif. We traveled across the country by the 'Southern Route.' The United States are beautiful. I thank God I am an American. We boys have everything to fight for 'Freedom.' Keep up the good work."

Pvt. Nick Hilbert, who was at Camp Blanding, Fla., left last Thursday to return to duty after spending a seven day furlough here with Mrs. Hilbert.

Civilian Defense Field Exercises Will Be Staged

Township Commander Vos Announces Test Program for Sunday Afternoon

All air raid wardens of Antioch township are being called upon by Roman B. Vos, civilian defense commander, to notice that field exercises for the Citizens Defense corps will be held Sunday, March 26, at 4 p. m. One long blast of the local fire siren will herald the opening of the exercises. Demobilization of those taking part will take place on the completing of all incidents, at about 5:30 p. m.

No Public Participation The purpose of the exercises is to test the fitness of the protective system, to give practical experience in handling incidents, and to develop the use of one or more services for the control of local emergencies.

There will be no public participation, Vos announces.

Traffic will continue as usual, without stoppages, and industrial plants need not participate.

Swayer Is Re-elected by Pure Milk Association

Wilbur J. Swayer of Gurnee was re-elected president of the Pure Milk association by the new board of directors which met March 15 following the association's 19th annual meeting.

Swayer has served for nine years as director from District No. 7 (Lake county).

Charles W. Schmaling of Delavan, was re-elected first vice-president, an office he has filled since the association was organized in Wisconsin.

Other officers are Harry Meyer, Crown Point, Ind., second vice-president; Walter Winn, Richmond, treasurer; Charles M. Cosgrove, Elgin, secretary. Winn and Cosgrove were re-elected. Meyer replaces Albert P. Brucker of Monterey, Ind., who died last December.

Grade and H. S. Board Elections Set for Apr. 8

One Member to Be Chosen for High School, Four for Grade School

Board members for Antioch Township High school and Antioch Grade school will be chosen at elections Saturday, April 8.

Only one member will be chosen to the board of education of District No. 117, at the polls at Antioch Township high school.

Walter K. Hillis, who is up for re-election for a three-year term, is the lone candidate, although voters have the opportunity to write in other names at the polls.

Similarly unopposed is the roster of candidates for District No. 34, which has the Antioch Grade school as its polling place.

Mrs. Ida Kufalk is a candidate for re-election as president of the District No. 34 board of education for a one-year term. Arthur Laursen and Henry Rentner are candidates for re-election for three-year terms.

The only new entrant is H. E. Cardiff, candidate to fill the unexpired period of one year in the term of A. G. Simon, who has moved to California.

Adam Kruger, Bristol, Dies of Heart Attack

Adam Kruger, 78, of Route 1, Bristol township, was found dead in his one-room home on the Clarence Nelson farm late on Tuesday afternoon of last week by Sheriff's Deputies Milton La Violette and James Dunn, who had been assigned to take him to a Kenosha hospital in the squad ambulance.

Kruger had been under the care of a physician for a heart ailment. His death was believed to have occurred some time Monday night.

He was well known throughout the southwestern part of Bristol township as a farm helper and worker. Kruger was born in Russia in 1865, coming to the United States in 1907. He had no known relatives in this country.

Eble Sherwood, 1124 Darrow avenue, Evanston, manager of the Special Service department at Wlebold's and William Lickery spent the week-end at Sherwood's recently purchased Grass Lake home. Mrs. Sherwood is one of the grandmothers who recently joined the W.A.C.

Salem Election April 4 Offers Little Competition

Offering little prospect of contests, with a slate of candidates made up mainly of incumbents, is the Town of Salem election to be held Tuesday, April 4.

The slate includes Arthur Hartnell, chairman of the supervisors; William Cook and Joseph Greenwald, supervisors (two are to be elected); Alfred Schmidt, town clerk; C. V. Cook, town treasurer.

Arthur Bloss and David Kimball are both candidates for town assessor. For justice of the peace (two year term) there is only one entrant, Elmer Barthel.

There are four candidates for constable, three of whom will be elected. The candidates are Lester Dix, George Higgins, Louis Lutz and E. T. Manning.

Nominated for the caucus committee are Matt Reiter, Harry Lubeno and Willis Sheen.

The Observer

We see where George K. Spoor, who with E. H. Amet pioneered in the making of movies, and who joined with G. M. ("Broncho Billy") Anderson in forming the Essanay studios at 1345 Argyle, Chicago, in 1907, will attend a Pioneers' Night dinner Friday, March 31 at the Blackstone hotel. Ben Turpin, Beverly Bayne, Gloria Swanson, Wallace Beery and Charlie Chaplin were some of the early Essanay stars. They turned down Mary Pickford when she asked for $45 a week in 1908—so she went to New York and became the "Biograph girl."

Them WAS the days!

So are these. We see where Aviation Cadet R. D. Seale, 23, of Tatt, Calif., stricken blind suddenly while he was at the controls of a one-man training plane at Chico, Calif., landed it safely under the directions of Lieut. Col. C. W. Thaxton, in the army field control tower. Drama in the moon pitchers ain't got nothin' on drama in real life.

In curious contrast with the Pharos and all others who had monuments of stone erected to their memories were the last wishes of Irvin S. Cobb, the "sage of Paducah," who died March 10 in New York. He asked that there be "no long faces and no show of grief" at his burial, and that his ashes be taken to Paducah for burial beneath a dogwood tree "at the proper planting season."

"Should the tree live," he wrote, "that will be monument enough for me."

The stone will outlast the dogwood tree and no doubt even the writings of Irvin S. Cobb—but we wonder whether it will have much more meaning than they will, beyond the mere impressiveness of its massive weight?

Was there not another philosopher once who said something like this—"I would rather be a man, with the sufferings that mankind undergoes, than be a stone and know nothing?"

Legion Seeks Aid on Names for Honor Roll

Painting of Addition to Sign Is Being Completed This Week

Further co-operation on the part of the public is being sought this week by the Antioch American Legion post and the Antioch News in bringing up to date and correcting the names on the Honor Roll in the village park, and on the Antioch-Lake Villa mailing list of men and women in the service.

A list of names compiled for the Honor Roll is printed on page 2 of this issue of the Antioch News. It has been compiled by John L. Horan, who has also had charge of the files of names for the mailing list. Additions and corrections for the Honor Roll may be sent to Horan or to Roman B. Vos of the Legion. Mailing list corrections may be registered either with Horan or the Antioch News office.

When revisions being made on the sign this week are completed, it will display the names of 357 men and women in the various branches of the United States armed services. There are more than 500 names on the mailing list of those who receive the Antioch News.

The sending of the home town paper to those from Antioch and Lake Villa, and others who have close ties with this locality, such as graduates of Antioch Township High school, summer residents, and persons employed here at the time they entered the service, was begun by the late Homer B. Gaston, editor and publisher of the News, at his own expense when the selective service system was inaugurated.

As the list of those receiving the paper lengthened and the expense increased, the Legion assumed a share in sponsoring the project and arranged to pay half of the cost. The task of making weekly changes in the mailing list, amounting to several hours of work each week, was taken over by Horan, with assistance from members of the News staff.

"It will be noticed," Horan explains with regard to the honor roll, "that a few names from outside of the community, such as those of members of the Antioch Sons of the Legion and also members of the Antioch Legion Junior Drum and Bugle corps, will appear on the sign."

"There may be some mis-spelling of names, also, and if the relatives of those in the service are in doubt as to having a name placed on the sign or having the name of some service man or woman entered on the mailing list, such information may be given to Vos or myself."

"It is suggested that as soon as a change of address is given to a relative of the change, as it must be realized that newspaper publications travel only as second class mail matter, and do not receive the same consideration in forwarding that is given to letters and other first class mail. The address should be given in full detail in order to insure prompt delivery."

"Addresses of the following are being particularly sought at this time for the mailing list:

"Charles Christensen, Jack Paul, Dale Schmah!, Howard Alward, Jack Rhoades, Daniel Werhan, Keith J. Eppers, Raymond Jensen, Peter G. Gloesener, Roger A. Drite, Edward L. Panzer, George W. Christensen, Edward T. Lynch, G. H. Kauffmann and Arthur M. Scott."

"For your convenience in sending in addresses, a mailing coupon is published on Page 2 of this issue."

Downey Hospital Needs Attendants

"America, take good care of him," is the plea in the heart of every mother whose son comes home from the battlefronts either sick or wounded.

To answer this plea, personnel is needed in hospitals. At the moment, the Veterans' Government hospital at Downey, four miles south of Waukegan, needs attendants in the wards and in the kitchen and cafeteria. These jobs, according to information furnished to Oliver E. Hughes of the Antioch postoffice, secretary to the local board of U. S. civil service examiners, require no experience.

Personnel needed includes 23 hospital or ward orderlies; 8 mess attendants (kitchen and cafeteria); 1 guard-chauffeur; 1 laundry helper; 2 laborers; 1 maid. Salaries on all of these positions are $125 per month for a 48 hour-week, with the exception of guard-chauffeur, which pays $150.

Applicants may consult Mrs. E. Stefanowski, secretary to the local board of civil service examiners at the Veterans' hospital, Downey.

Lake and Winnebago Counties Compete for Christmas Seal Honors

Competing for first place in the state-wide sale of Christmas seals are Lake and Winnebago counties, which hold the leadership for the territory outside of Chicago.

According to reports received from Springfield by Miss Orpha White, secretary of the Lake County Tuberculosis association, Winnebago county had a slight lead over Lake county's total receipts of $27,046.

Final reports will be made March 31 and a trophy will be awarded to the association with the largest sale.

Black Miracle Brought to Light

A lump of coal is not dramatic compared to battleships and tanks plunging through enemy defenses with guns blazing. But before there could be today's battleships and tanks there had to be coal. Moreover, it had to be available in a quantity and form which required years of effort and scientific research on the part of the coal industry. Thanks to such research, coal is one of the most important and widely used materials in the war effort.

A large steel company recently devoted a page advertisement to the part coal plays in making steel. This single company consumes 17,000 tons of coal every day of the year—enough to heat 2,500 family dwellings during a long, cold winter. Modern steel is the result of blending coals of various types, grades and ages to obtain stronger, cleaner burning fuel for the blast furnaces. Sampling, testing and blending is done at the mines. A ton and seven-tenths of coal is required to make one ton of steel.

After the war, research now being conducted in coal will bring undreamed of benefits to everyone. For example, experiments are being made on pipeless heating units. Homes and apartments eventually will be heated by stoves no larger than small radios.

The coal being consumed in this country has lain dormant in the ground for three hundred million years. Modern industry has at last brought it to light—a black miracle.

Reconversion Begins With Government

Governmental agencies urge American industry to speed plans for reconversion to peacetime output. It is warned that the end of hostilities will force the United States to make a choice between a capitalistic system of free enterprise and maximum production, a totalitarian regime dominated by centralized governmental planning for industry and individuals, or a system of managed economy in which cartels would fix prices and regulate production without government control. The latter two would destroy the freedom of the individual in this country.

Continuance of the capitalistic system will not rest alone upon the ability of industry to reconvert speedily to peace production. It will rest also upon the ability and willingness of public officials to effect speedy reconversion from the existing semi-dictatorial government of war to representative government of pre-war days.

There are too many inferences spread today that wartime regulations will have to be continued for an indefinite period after the war—especially the price and rationing controls currently governing the distribution system. As long as restrictions on distribution are maintained, it is idle to talk of full production. Maximum production cannot be attained until distribution is freed of wartime regulations that curb competition and restrict the operating efficiency of the men who must finally put the luxuries and necessities produced by industry into the hands of consumers—the nation's retail merchants.

If there is to be the prosperous peace desired by all, it must begin with the reconversion plans for government itself. The nation is waiting anxiously to see those plans.

Quotes of the Week

"The (postwar reconversion) job is essentially one of simplification, so that industry and labor can make their own plans—for the success or failure of which they and they alone will be responsible."—Truman Committee, U. S. Senate.

"I want to live in America always. I never saw such beautiful things!"—Algiers-born wife of first American soldier to be married in North Africa.

"In all my 38 years in the oil business I've heard nothing but 'shortage.' Has it occurred to these post-war prophets that the motor car which eventually will be produced will double or triple the present mileage?"—James A. Moffet, oil executive.

"Today nearly five per cent of all gasoline is purchased without coupons, or with stolen or counterfeit coupons."—OPA Administrator Bowles.

"No procedure in modern government has greater potentialities for destroying the democratic process than centralization of authority in the all-powerful commission and governmental agency."—A. L. M. Wiggins, pres., American Bankers Association.

"I wonder if it isn't being a crusader to learn to give facts and to try and get the truth before the readers of a paper."—Eleanor Roosevelt.

"The hardback was hard as the hubs of hell!" U. S. Senator after trying army K-rations.

Honor Roll

The following is a complete list of all Antioch Township servicemen whose names appear on the Honor Roll in the Village Park or whose names will appear there when the painting is completed. It is published with the hope that readers of the News will co-operate with the Antioch Legion Post in making doubly sure that no serviceman's name is omitted. If you know of any Antioch Township boy or girl who is in the service and whose name is not on this list please communicate with John L. Horan, Boys in Service Chairman for the Antioch Legion Post.

MILLBURN

Mrs. Mattie Edwards is spending several weeks with the Millburn family in Oak Park.

Mrs. Clifford Weber, Jr., left Friday for Cocoa, Fla., where her husband is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Edwards were supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Krummy in Libertyville Sunday.

Mrs. William Huth is spending two weeks with her sisters in Detroit, Mich.

The community extends sympathy to Mrs. William Huth and family in the death of her husband, who passed away at Memorial hospital in Burlington, Wis., last Monday morning after a few weeks' illness.

Mr. Huth had spent his entire life at East Troy and Burlington, Wis., until the family moved to Millburn four years ago, where they operated a grocery store and filling station. Besides his wife, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. William Kunzman, Verona, Wis., Mrs. Martin Wegner, Burlington, Wis., and Mrs. Alfred Dettinger of Millburn.

Funeral services were held from St. John's Lutheran church at Burlington, Wis., at 2 o'clock on Wednesday with burial in Oak Ridge cemetery, East Troy, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Herrick were called to Chicago Tuesday morning by the sudden death of the latter's brother, Dewey Carney, who suffered a heart attack after arriving at his office that morning. Funeral services were held Wednesday evening in Chicago, after which the body was taken to St. Olaf, Iowa, for burial.

Mrs. James Cunningham entertained her sister, Mrs. G. O. Gundersen of Orfordville, Wis., from Monday until Wednesday. Other guests for dinner on Wednesday were Mrs. W. H. Brown of Grange Hall road, Mrs. W. C. Upton and Mrs. Robert McCann.

Mrs. Ralph McGuire and sons, Larry and Billy spent Saturday with Mrs. H. M. Schmelz in Des Plaines, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Hollenbeck with old neighbors from Hickory spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. David Pullen in Zion, who were celebrating their 46th wedding anniversary that day.

Guests at the O. L. Hollenbeck home over the week-end were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Murphy of Port Custer, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jones of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Busk and son, Bryce, of Glen Ellyn were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Upton Sunday.

Mrs. Eliza Bonner and daughter, Vivien, spent Thursday with Mrs. Mina Gilbert in Waukegan.

Eleven members and eight guests received the lesson on "Slip Covers" given by County Home Adviser Mrs. Helen J. Volk at the March meeting of Millburn unit held at the home of Mrs. McAllister Irving Friday afternoon. A demonstration of cutting and fitting a fine piece muslin pattern for a chair gave each step in such detail that everyone had a definite idea of how to proceed in cutting a slip cover.

Mrs. O. L. Hollenbeck was appointed 4-11 club chairman, Mrs. Carl Anderson, Recreation chairman; Mrs. Gordon Bonner, Publicity chairman; Mrs. E. W. King, Defense chairman;

Mrs. Avery Vose, Safety chairman; Mrs. Victor Strang, Library chairman; Mrs. Max Irving, Citizenship and Health chairman.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Frank Salisbury, Mrs. George Ryckman, Mrs. George Olson and Mrs. Robert Brooks, all of Waukegan, Mrs. Ray Ehert, Mrs. William Richards, Mrs. Stanley Haney and Mrs. Robert Durr.

This unit will furnish cookies for the Sheridan Road U. S. O. in Waukegan the week of March 26.

Local leaders Mrs. Eric Anderson and Mrs. Emmet King spent Thursday afternoon in Grayslake where they received the lessons for April which will be given at the home of the former on April 13.

Fifteen young business girls and teachers of the community accepted the invitation of Mrs. L. H. Messersmith and met at her home last Wednesday night to organize a study group. Officers were elected as follows: Ruth Minto, president; Mrs. Don Traux, vice president, and Mrs. Walter Fontaine, secretary and treasurer. Meetings will be held the third Thursday evening of the month. The next meeting will be held at the home of Lois Bonner.

Family night will be held in the recreation room of the church Friday evening.

An account of memorial services honoring the late Emma Mae (Spafford) Hughes, at the Millburn Congregational church Sunday, is published elsewhere in this issue of the News.

LAKE VILLA

Lake Villa Community Church Methodist—John DeVries, Pastor Church School—10 A. M. Worship Service—11 A. M.

Young People's Service—7:30 P. M. The topic for the sermon by Rev. DeVries for next Sunday morning at the worship service at 11 o'clock is "A World Family." A communion service will be held on Palm Sunday morning, and parents who have children to be baptized may arrange with Rev. DeVries for baptisms on that day. At 7:45 on Good Friday evening, a service of meditation will be held at the church, and these services are open to all who care to take part.

The Board of Education of the church will hold a meeting at the Charles Hamlin home on Friday evening.

Mrs. Madsen will entertain the Lake Villa unit of W. S. C. S. at a meeting at her home on Friday afternoon to sew, and you are very welcome.

Mrs. R. L. Gunnarson spent a few days last week with relatives and friends in Chicago.

The P. T. A. held a meeting at the school-house on Monday evening and Sgt. John DePew of the Illinois State Police gave a splendid talk on his work and the delinquency problem.

The public card and Bunco party held by the group at the gymnasium last week was very successful and 22 tables were in play. R. L. Gunnarson won the table lamp donated by the Public Service Co.

Mrs. Paul Avery, Jr., was hostess to the Friendly Dozen Sewing club at a luncheon at her home last Thursday afternoon.

Donald Davis celebrated his fourteenth birthday last Saturday with a party given for the seventh and eighth grades by his mother at their home on Oak Knoll Drive. The children played games and enjoyed the refreshments.

Lester Ring also celebrated his fourteenth birthday last Friday by having a party at the school in which refreshments were an important feature.

Dallas Karolius and Sue Weber have finished the orchestra chart which will help the students to know musical instruments and orchestral settings.

Second Lieut. Wesley Blumen-schein of the Marines, an instructor at Camp Quantico, Va., and his wife and son of Minneapolis, were guests of his parents here last Thursday and left on Friday for Quantico where he will be stationed for the coming six months, and his wife and son have joined him for that time.

Mrs. Joe Nader and Mrs. Charles Britton were Waukegan shoppers last Thursday.

Mrs. William Marks was a Chicago visitor on Monday.

Miss Annie Petru of Chicago came Friday evening and her sister Libbie came Saturday to visit their cousin, Mrs. Marie Hamlin. They returned home Sunday evening with their brother, Joe Petru and family who came out for the day.

The classes for making Red Cross surgical dressings are growing and you may join at any time. They meet at the school house in an upper room Monday evening from 7 to 9:30 and on Thursdays from 1 to 4 p. m. The work is very interesting and we may be working for some of our own boys.

The Kasten car which was stolen from their garage early Sunday morning a week ago, was recovered a few days later at Highland Center, Wis., a bit the worse for wear, but usable. Mr. Kasten made the trip by train to recover it last week.

SYNOPSIS

CHAPTER I: The story of the famous 19th and 7th Bombardment Groups, of Lieut. Col. Frank Kurtz and his Fortresses crew in the tremendous air campaign that saved the day for the United Nations in the Southwest Pacific.

CHAPTER II: Lieut. Kurtz tells how orders to camouflage Old 69 were countermanded; instead they were to launch bombs. Then he was ordered to jerk the bombs, reload with cameras and rush the camouflage.

CHAPTER III: Bombs hit the mess hall. The Japs move out. They hear another burn, 'P-40's', they think, but they prove to be zeros coming in from the direction of Corororua. The boys duck back into their cockpits.

CHAPTER IV: The pilots are given their targets and lowering above the group is Col. Kelly, about to head out on his first mission. Buzz Warner is chased by Japs in his P-40. He meets Lieut. Russ Church and they bomb a Jap field. Church falls to return. The death of Col. Kelly.

CHAPTER V: Missresses are kept in the air to save them from the Japs. Through some mistake someone opens fire on them. Japs begin photographing the place. No longer able to sleep in the barracks, cots are moved into a corn field. With no fighter left to defend them, evacuation begins. Lieut. Kurtz tells of last plane trip out to a patched-up plane. Japs land light tanks at Anani. Squadron commander Major Gibbs falls to return from mission. U. S. forces flee from Clark Field.

CHAPTER VI: Navigator, Harry Schreiber tells of a fight with zeros in which Shorty Waters takes part. He lands in a rice paddy and is surrounded by Filipinos. The crew buys an outrigger canoe and sail to the Isle of Panay. Later they take off for Australia.

CHAPTER VII: Lieut. Kurtz takes up the story again. He describes the Christmas day to Australia, and how U. S. fliers spent it. A report comes in over CW radio. It was from Schreiber, saying he'd be in after dark with one body aboard. Schreiber gets in the plane a wreck. Gen. Breerlein lands on the field and the boys are summoned to a meeting.

CHAPTER VIII: U. S. fliers arrive at the Dutch field, and shortly after start on night for Davao, in the Philippines, but run short of gas and come home. Gas up and take off at midnight for Davao, but fail to make target. On third trip over, Kurtz sees tremendous concentration of ships, makes bomb run. Jap fighters come up. "Bombs away!"

CHAPTER IX

"I poured on every ounce of power we had, and was about to turn for the getaway when I saw, just in time, that old Jim, who had dropped his bombs before I did, had already started his turn to get off the target a few seconds before me. He had his plane reeled in to a turn so tight that his wing was practically vertical, and I had to cock mine up practically the same way to keep out of his way.

"So then when we got disentangled we put our planes into a slight dive to outrun the pursuit behind us. Those zeros had started late off the ground, but a zero can climb fast—it has practically no weight at all, and can climb better than 5,000 feet a minute. So we went into this inclining dive to pick up speed and stretch our distance from the target fast.

"The next thing I did was to call down to the bombardier and the navigator to come on up and tell me what we'd done to the Japs. Gulping coffee and between chews of sandwiches, they told me and my co-pilot just how it had looked. Lying on their bellies and looking down and back, they'd been able to see the target some minutes after we'd left it.

"They said it had been a sight to watch. A few of the Jap cruisers and destroyers had managed to get under way, and their wakes laced the water in great spirals and swirls as they tried to dodge the bombs. Aside from these few, they said, we'd caught the Japs absolutely flat-footed. If there had been enough of us, we could have blown a chunk out of their fleet they would never have recovered from.

"As it was, they had watched four direct hits on a Jap battleship, seen pieces of debris flying in every direction and smoke starting to billow up. In addition to this, our squadron had sunk three smaller craft—two cruisers and a transport.

"They said it was beautiful to watch. One of the ships was keeling slowly, another's nose was tilting up from a direct hit on her stern, which was already under before we went out of sight.

"They said our bomb pattern had churned the whole area white with spouts of foam, and what few ships had their power up were running around like crazy. They said thousands of skilled personnel had been killed or drowned, and also that we had torn hell out of the dock workers and docks at Davao Harbor.

"Only I don't have time to gloat long, for something approaching us from ahead catches my eye through the windshield. It's practically flying our course and our altitude, except that it's off to the left. But am I seeing a ghost? It can't be what I think it is, a Messerschmitt 110, the kind that Ernst Udet told me all about in Berlin when I visited there in 1934. There can't be a Messerschmitt 110 in this hemisphere, but what else could it be with that split tail?

"Anyway there it is, coming nearer and nearer. The Messerschmitt 110's have plenty of range, so the Japs must be using her as a scout plane. We've altered our course from the phony one to the real one which will bring us home. And now this lying nightmare—out of its continent and its hemisphere—has undoubtedly seen us and can surely figure out that we're headed for Borneo, where we must be based. And just now is approaching us at an angle where, if I dare to, I could peel off my formation and give him a lot of trouble.

"He doesn't alter his course and I don't alter mine; and after he's passed the point where I could set up a collision course with him, I begin to come to my senses, to realize that I'm the pilot of a Flying Fortress and my job is to get home safely with these boys and this plane, which was never designed to engage in dogfights with Messerschmitts.

"We got back to Malong feeling pretty pleased with ourselves," said Frank, "and I personally felt I had made headway settling my old Philippine score. But in Java we found there were troubles ahead, and the least of these was that our Navy was accusing us of bombing their ships. They didn't say any of them had been hit, just that they'd had to beat off an attack, and it occurred to me that this might explain all those fireworks which came whooping up under our chins through the overcast that night over the Celebes Sea. But we were never sure.

"So we said, 'Then why don't you tell us where your ships are going to be?' but it seemed that had never been done—a raling from the Navy Department in Washington. I guess those guys must take some kind of a bomb-sight oath never to tell anything to anybody who doesn't wear black shoes.

"But plenty more was going on. It developed that our smash at the Jap fleet in Davao had been almost too successful. Because Davao was no longer a safe base for them, they had apparently boosted up their schedule by two or three weeks. Our reconnaissance went clear up to the Davao area and reported nothing there; then we found out the whole gang had moved out together and they were off the coast of Borneo, moving down into Macassar Strait, and it was clear they intended to clean out Borneo—not only because of our advance bases there, but because they wanted the rich oil fields at Tarakan and Balikpapan on the eastern coast of Borneo, where the oil is so rich they say you can pump it right into the bunkers of ships. Of course they'd built up big oil reserves which they had bought from us before Pearl Harbor, but now they were out to grab off some fields of their own.

"And who was going to stop them? It was up to us to try, because we seemed to be the only force the United Nations had in that area big enough to tackle the Jap fleet.

"We were briefed before dawn—told everything that was known about this big Jap gang of ships off northeast Borneo—and at 8:30 in the morning nine of us took off from the Malang Field. We planned to fly over the Java Sea and then inland over Borneo, carrying to start with an altitude of about 9,500 feet. But about eight o'clock we hit a tropical front which was a nightmare—fog so dense you could hardly see to light the tip of your cigarette.

"When we saw it coming ahead, each V spread out a little, so we wouldn't collide. Only we didn't dream how dense and how long it was going to be.

"It was like trying to fly inside a giant bale of cotton—so dense that when you looked out at the side you could barely see your own wing tips. And looking straight ahead, that bale of cotton seemed tightly packed against your windshield, only like a dull flat gray-white, like the cotton I imagine they'd spin winding sheets out of. And you'd stare into the windshield, trying to see how close you were to your wing man, but there would only be that flat white, squeezed tight against your windshield, muffling everything. Then all of a sudden, the wing of the plane ahead would come surging into view out of that winding sheet, so terribly big and close that you would frantically jerk back all four throttles to cut your power, and begin fidgeting your rudder to slow the big brute down a little, praying that by this you'd miss crashing into the plane ahead at least by a few yards.

"We'd been fighting through it on instruments, because inside that cotton bale you couldn't see stars or ocean, and it took so much hard flying that I was having my co-pilot handle the power for me. If I thought I was dropping behind the rest, maybe I would get lost and have to go over the target alone, which by now we knew was a dangerous business. I'd say to him, 'All right, give me a little more mercury now—about four inches.' Then when I'd catch a glimpse of the plane ahead I'd say: 'Okay, now you can bring it back to thirty inches.' We're sitting okay—I can see him fine. And I could for a minute or so.

"Without warning I break into the clear. I haven't climbed over that cloud, but instead have flown out of one of the walls of an enormous cloud canyon and am now flying around in the clear air between the precipices.

"Ahead of me looms the other canyon wall. Maybe it's thirty miles away, maybe fifty—you can't ever judge the distance of a cloud, because they don't come to a stand-stills. But cloud canyons like this one are one magnificent sight that you never see any place except in the high skies.

"Because, you see, the morning sun was slanting down from behind me, over the top of the canyon wall out of which I had just come, to hit the top half of the cloud-canyon wall ahead. That top half might have been built out of burnished silver feather beds piled one on top of the other, and yet you looked again and it seemed to be so firm it could be carved of glistening ice or marble.

"I am wondering if old Jim is also looking at all this when suddenly his voice comes out of nowhere into my earphones.

"Connally to Kurtz, he is calling.

"Kurtz answering Connally, I say.

"Have you broken into the clear yet? he asks.

"Into the clear, Jim, at 14,500. Now I'm turning onto 270 degrees. That means I'm turning out to fly down that canyon to see if I can't catch sight of Jim, whose voice is so loud in my ears. Suddenly I see a single Fortress ahead there in the canyon. I pick him up when the reflecting sun hits his upturned wing. He is circling.

"I think I see you, Jim, I call. 'Continue to circle.' I head toward the plane and fall in on its wing, continuing the long slow circle inside the canyon in the hope we'll pick up some of the others, and won't have to go in on the target alone.

Meanwhile the radio operators of the two planes have started talking to each other by winking their Aldis lamps back and forth. We're so near the target I don't want to use the radio any more than necessary. And just then I spot a third plane—about 500 feet below us and farther west down the canyon. Just as I'm wondering which one it is, my radio operator reports that the plane we're circling isn't Jim at all, it's Bill Bohmker. So we drop on down the canyon and sure enough, that third plane turns out to be old Jim. I can read his number plain now on his tail. Now there are three of us in the circle, wondering what in hell has become of the other six.

We haven't got the gas to stay in this golden dream castle much longer. But just then my radio operator comes in with a message from Combs, the leader. God knows where he is, but he's telling us, 'Continue to target,' and he's sending it out by key, where he can use code, because he hasn't use voice so close to the target as he must by now be, because most of these damn zero pilots seemed to have graduated from Los Angeles High School and understand English as well as you do.

"All right, continue it is, so now we flying back into that damned front—the opposite canyon wall—and the gray mist packed down around my windshield again. We continued to climb in that deathly whiteness—first one wing and then the other surging into my view. I flew it for forty-five minutes and decided it was just too much to risk crashing into each other when we were so close to the target. So without any message to Jim or Bill I decided I'd spread out. I flew 45 degrees for thirty seconds, then back thirty more seconds, and then continued on the old course—flying on instruments, of course. But now that we were staggered both in altitude and in interval, it wasn't so bad.

"Finally we broke out into the clear at 27,000 feet at a quarter after ten and discovered we had lost interval only by a very little. But I was groggy—we'd been on oxygen for four and a half hours already.

"But the weather was still playing tricks. Now the mist was coming in great tufts, thicker than cotton wadding, while below us was a thin layer of overcast.

"We were getting close to the target now. Should we climb higher? There wasn't much point, because if we did, that overcast layer might thicken so that we couldn't see the target, and we'd have to come down below it to unload.

"But where's Bill Bohmker? I look back and see that he's very slowly peeling off. I wonder why. Probably supercharger trouble. Then I think to myself, 'There he goes, and I'd hoped maybe at least three of us could go in together.' Because in my mind is that ralph-check idea—the score isn't settled yet, and if that target is open at all, I've made up my mind I'm going in. And I think to myself, 'Here we go again, Jim, just you and me.'

"About this time I hear a gunner on Combs' ship—they've broken radio silence, which means they're on the target—saying, 'Lots of enemy fighters sighted!'

"But they're still far ahead, out of sight. Here we are again, in a staggered attack—the stragglers to bear the brunt of what the first flights stir up. We ought to know better, but still I'm going on in.

"The weather gets crazier and crazier—these enormous tufts stratified at all, but floating around at almost any altitude. And my co-pilot seems to be fascinated by a big black one that isn't shaped quite like a thunderhead. It might be one of those Dakota tornado funnels, only it doesn't revolve.

"Then suddenly he says, storing at it: 'Hell, Frank, that isn't a cloud at all—look! I follow his finger, and down at the base of that cloud, on the ground, is a crackling, flaming oil field! The gallant Dutch are scorching the earth for fair—burning up their Borneo oil fields right in the face of the advancing Japs, millions of dollars' worth of it. Imagine all of East Texas crackling and pouring black smoke into the sky.

"We can't stop to watch a billion dollars go up in black smoke. The Dutch are doing their job and we have ours, which just now is scanning for fighters. I realize that in this weather and so close to the target they might be anywhere, only for some reason I never think of them when my No. 1 starboard engine starts jumping around in its mount, rattling the whole plane.

"I only curse my luck and ask, 'If we were going to have engine trouble, why in hell couldn't it have been on the way home instead of now, when we're about to begin our run over the target?'

"I watch the oil pressure drop sickeningly, and still it doesn't drop on me what hit that motor. I'm just sure at it for letting me down. And also, what will I do—nurse it along by feathering it, or see if I can't give it maybe 1,000 RPM's (revolutions per minute) while I push the other three up to 2,600?

Republicans To Confer With Farm Leaders On Policy Program

The sub-committee on Agriculture of the Republican Post-War Advisory Council will hold a two day conference with farm leaders on April 3 and 4 at the Stevens Hotel, Chicago.

This committee is making a thorough study of this basic industry and will report its conclusions to the Republican National Committee when it meets in June, the report to be used as a basis for drafting a platform for agriculture and for the guidance of the Party after the next election.

The committee believes that the best source for information and advice on agriculture and its problems is the farmers themselves and therefore has invited farm leaders to present their views at the conference to be held in Chicago.

The five leading national farm organizations—the American Farm Bureau Federation, the National Grange, the Farmers Union, the National Council of Farmers' Cooperatives and the National Cooperative Milk Producers' Federation—have been asked to send representatives to the conference who will present the results of their studies of the farm problem.

This is the first meeting of its kind ever called by any political party, with the officials of the party conferring weeks preceding its national convention with the official leaders of agriculture.

Republican party leaders believe that the farm problem is economic rather than political and that it should not be made the subject of political controversy. They believe, however, that the nation cannot prosper permanently until agriculture can be placed on a basis where farmers will receive their full share of the national income.

Agriculture has been made a stepchild by the New Deal. The White House Palace Guard considers the farmers as mere pawns in their scheme of things and has been bending every effort to completely regiment them in their plan of agricultural operations controlled from Washington. They have lost sight of the fundamental truth expressed by Thomas Jefferson when he declared: "Were we to be directed from Washington when to sow and when to reap, we should soon want bread."

The conference with farm leaders will be conducted by the sub-committee consisting of the following members of Congress and state governors: Gov. Bourke B. Hickenlooper of Iowa, Chairman; Senator Kenneth Wherry of Nebraska; Senator R. E. Willis of Indiana; Gov. Sumner Sewall of Maine; Gov. Sam C. Ford of Montana; Gov. C. A. Bolton of Idaho; Gov. Edw. J. Thyne of Minnesota; Rep. Clifford R. Hope of Kansas; Rep. August H. Andersen of Minnesota.

Storing Onions The onions should be stored in slatted crates, to provide good ventilation. To keep them long, put them in a cool, dry place, such as a shed or attic, where they will not freeze.

WILMOT

PRINCE-PEDERSEN ENGAGEMENT TOLD

Planning to be married some time in June are Florence Evelyn Prince, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Prince of Diamond Lake, and Alfred Paul Pedersen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Pedersen, highway 173, Antioch, whose engagement has been announced by the parents of the bride-to-be.

Miss Prince is secretary to the board of education of the Libertyville public schools. She was graduated from Libertyville Township High school in 1942.

Alfred assists in the operation of the Pedersen farm and farm implement business. He attended Antioch Township High school.

CHANNEL LAKE COMMUNITY CLUB TO SPONSOR DANCE AND CARD PARTY
Bessie Barnes and orchestra will play for the card party and dance to be sponsored by the Channel Lake Community club, Tuesday evening, March 28. Dancing, bridge, 500, pinocle and bunco will be enjoyed. Refreshments and prizes.

METHODIST ACTIVITIES
at Antioch
Our church is making steady and permanent progress. At the rededication service on March 5, ten new members were received. Since then seven others have signified their desire to unite with us on Easter Sunday. Others who wish to come with this group please communicate with the pastor.
Last Sunday the Church School reached its "Record Attendance." We hope to go far beyond this by Easter Sunday. Every child within reach of Antioch should be in one of the Church Schools which the village maintains.

On Thursday evening of last week a group of young people gathered at the home of Mr. Williams and laid plans for the organization of a Youth Fellowship. They plan for a social meeting in the church basement each Thursday evening at 7:30. Included in those eligible are all young people of High School age and up. Membership in the church is not required.

DANCE, BINGO AND CARDS AT CHANNEL LAKE SCHOOL FRIDAY, MARCH 24

The Junior department of the Channel Lake Community club will hold a dance, bingo and card party at the school house Friday evening, March 24, from 7 to 11. Mrs. Genevieve Cunningham, Child Welfare chairman, is in charge of arrangements. Lunch will be served. Admission 15 cents per person.

ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Mollie Samerville entertained the members of her bridge club at her home Tuesday. Mrs. Mike Golden and Mrs. Ernest Clark were winners of highest scores. A luncheon was served by the hostess following the games.

FRANK WIECZOREK IS CALLED HERE BY DAUGHTER'S ILLNESS

Frank Wieczorek arrived Saturday from Mare Island, Calif., where he has been in service with the U. S. Navy. He was called here through the efforts of the Red Cross, because of the extended illness of his small daughter, Jacqueline, who has been in St. Therese hospital for the past five weeks. Jacqueline has received one blood transfusion from her mother, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Meyer of Grass Lake, and although she was reported somewhat improved, it was believed that it might be necessary for her to receive a second transfusion, in which event her father planned to act as donor.

GRADE P. T. A. WILL SPONSOR CARD PARTY

Five hundred, bridge, and pinocle will be played and refreshments will be served at the card party the Grade School Parent Teacher association will sponsor Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the school-house. Mrs. A. P. Bratrude is chairman of the committee.

Mrs. Hanford Shepard and daughter Mary Elizabeth of Kansas City, Mo., were guests of Mrs. Shepard's mother, Mrs. Homer B. Gaston and Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Gaston and family Monday.

HOLD BIRTHDAY PARTY AT DOWNEY

Members of Antioch American Legion Auxiliary No. 748 were co-hostesses with the Fox Lake unit at a party in Downey hospital last Thursday honoring veterans who have birthdays during March.

Attending from the Antioch auxiliary were Mmes. Anne Heath, president; Agnes Hills, rehabilitation chairman; Mary Mann, Patterson, Lillian Hand, Maud Hurtgen, Jean Ferris, Nellie Brogan, Tillie Miller, Louise Kaufman, Alma Harden and Sadie Keeney.

The Antioch unit took over 150 home-made cup cakes, two pounds of coffee and six cartons of cigarettes. They also took 400 magazines, 50 pounds of sewed carpet rags for the veterans' craft shop, playing cards, Christmas cards for use in craft work and jig saw puzzles.

Antioch unit and Fox Lake unit shared expenses for the birthday cake.

TALK ON "PRAYER" GIVEN AT MEETING OF WOMAN'S CLUB

Gallantly "pinch-hitting" for the previously scheduled speaker, who was unable to be present because of conflicting engagements, Mrs. A. F. Matthisen of Bristol, who is well known as a radio lecturer over Chicago stations, gave an interesting and inspirational talk on "Prayer" at a meeting of the Antioch Woman's club Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. W. C. Petty.

Mrs. A. H. Kaufmann gave several piano solos and the club chorus was featured in a brief but enjoyable program.

The next meeting of the club, on April 3, will be held in the home of Mrs. Edmund F. Vos, instead of at Mrs. Matthisen's home, as announced in the year book.

ARNOLD HANSON'S WILL CELEBRATE TWO ANNIVERSARIES

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hanson ("Arnie and Marie"), proprietors of Arnie's Roundup restaurant on Highway 21-83 one-half mile south of Antioch, will celebrate their fourteenth anniversary (which occurred Wednesday) and Marie's birthday anniversary with an "open house" for their many friends Sunday evening.

A buffet supper will be served, commencing at 9 o'clock.

The Hansons took over the Roundup last August, coming here from Evanston, their former home.

Parents of Daughter
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Davis of Crystal Lake, Ill., are the proud parents of a baby daughter born March 12, 1944. Mr. Davis is the youngest son of Mrs. Elva Davis of Bellwood, Ill., formerly of Antioch.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Hogan and son Jimmie are spending a few days with Mrs. Hogan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Nielsen, this week.

Mrs. E. J. Hays is entertaining Mrs. Mrs. William Bradley of Midlothian, Ill., this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Meyer spent Tuesday in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fenner, Lake Catherine, are the parents of a daughter born at St. Therese hospital, March 18.

E. J. Flanagan, who underwent an operation at St. Therese hospital March 4, is now home and plans to return to work in about a month.

Major League Double-Header Is Called Off

Due to the fact that a good many Friday night bowlers will not be able to bowl this week the double header scheduled to be rolled off Friday has been called off. No date has been set for the double header as yet.

All matches last Friday went by 2 to 1 counts with the Lumber company, Terlap Roofers and Bussie's Bar winning two each from the Recreation, Nielsen's and Berghoff's.

The Tavern League had a quiet session with Bud's, the only team taking three straight. Blum's Tavern was the victim. Thompson's took two from Sorenson's as did Friedle's from Nielsen's, Hanke's from Little America, Haling's over the Rec. and Pasadena from Anderson's Tavern.

TREVOR

Eldred Wilson, Silvernalls Corners, was a visitor Sunday of his brother, Lee Wilson and family. The school children and their teacher, Mrs. E. Loth, were the happy recipients of a surprise package Monday from the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis Assn. The contents included a baseball bat, and lead pencils for everyone. These things were given for the sale of Christmas seals by the children.

O. E. S. PAST MATRONS ARE ENTERTAINED AT WEBB RESIDENCE

Individual favors in the form of crepe paper hats made in colors and "themes" to suit the recipients were among the features of a party at which Mrs. L. R. Van Patten and Miss Elizabeth Webb were co-hostesses to the Past Matrons club of the Antioch Eastern Star chapter last Thursday evening in Miss Webb's home.

A delicious luncheon, with covers for 20, was served. Contests, games and bridge were enjoyed and a brief business meeting was held.

Mrs. William Gray and children, Mrs. Frank Harden, Mrs. Effie Nelson and Mrs. Vera Rentner visited Mrs. Sine Laursen in Waukegan Sunday afternoon.

Charles Hoge returned Monday from St. Therese hospital, where he had been a medical patient for the preceding week.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Henslee attended a meeting of the Chicago Methodist Preachers held in Chicago Monday. The subject for discussion was "Racism and the World Order."

daughter-in-law, Mrs. Russell Longman, were Kenosha shoppers Friday. Mrs. Joseph Smith visited her niece, Mrs. Irving Elms, in Antioch Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Richard Mason, Milwaukee, spent several days the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Longman. Other visitors at the Longman home were Mrs. Charles Runyard and daughters, Mrs. Russell Longman and Mrs. Willis Sheen.

Pvt. Harry Stoxen, Camp Huilen, Texas, is spending a 15 day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Stoxen. On Sunday they entertained at dinner in honor of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stoxen and daughter, Joyce, her mother, Mrs. H. Brinkman, Wilmet.

Miss Sylvia Kohout, Pleasant Prairie, and Mrs. Anna Howard, Camp Lake, were Sunday callers at the Arthur Bushing home.

Petty Officer Russell D. Longman, SK 1/c, U. S. N. R., is now stationed at U. S. N. B. barracks O 434, Shoemaker, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Rasch and daughters, Betty Jean and Carol Lynne, were Sunday visitors of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rasch, at Ilchmond.

Saturday evening callers at the Charles Oetting home were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Oetting, Mrs. Evelyn Neuman, Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Elms, Antioch.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bushing and son, Freddie, visited his sister, Mrs. Laura Oetting, at Berwyn, Ill., Friday. Mrs. Henry Prange and sister, Miss Loraine Kerkman, were recent shoppers in Kenosha.

Callers Sunday at the Sarah Patrick home were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Patrick, Salem, Mrs. Gerlie Davis, Bassett, and Mrs. Arthur Bushing.

Mr. and Mrs. Champ Parham were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Paacey and daughter, Lynne Ann, Randall. Mrs. Clarence Nelson and daughter, Dorothy, Bristol, were recent visitors at the Harry Dexter, Jr., home.

HOME BUREAU MEETS WITH MRS. GRIFFIN

Antioch Unit of Lake County Home Bureau met at the home of Mrs. Charles Griffin Wednesday, March 22. The meeting was opened with a salute to the flag, and the singing of God Bless America, after which the secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting. She reported that the unit had a 100 per cent paid up membership, and that it was also awarded second place in the home safety campaign. Mrs. Wells displayed and used the gavel which had been presented to the unit at the annual Home Bureau meeting in February, as the outstanding unit for 1943.

The next meeting will be held April 26 at the home of Mrs. John Heick, at which members and friends will exchange seeds and shrubs, etc. Mrs. Heick displayed the Historical Quilt the unit has made. Six guests attended the meeting, as follows: Mmes. W. C. Henslee, Peterson, Robt. Runyard, Sr., Hans Von Holwede, Clarence Heath, and Richards. The unit was happy to receive Mrs. Heath as a new member at this meeting.

Smart Farmers are saying, "I'll take my fertilizer NOW!" "I used to wait until spring to buy my fertilizer. But, times have changed! Today there is a shortage of labor for handling deliveries; potash and phosphates are in greater demand than available supplies can take care of. Every farmer will want to step up yields again this year. I know, from long experience, that the best way to do this is with DARLING'S SOIL BUILDERS. I've seen how it increased yields of corn selected year after year for National and State Corn Husking Contests. It's my first choice among fertilizers. "No one can tell what delays or other shortages we may have this spring. I am changing my buying habits and getting DARLING'S Fertilizer NOW."

ANTIOCH MILLING CO. IS READY FOR YOU

It's a wise farmer who takes his spring fertilizer NOW. Shortage of hands for shipping, trucking—combined with uncertainty of product restrictions, warrant storing spring fertilizer on the farm. DARLING'S Fertilizer in moisture-resisting 80-lb. Handiwater paper bags is easy to handle and easy to store. Don't wait and hope to get it in the spring. WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Eire Is Faced With Further Isolation; Allied Bombers Smash Axis Targets; Ready Knockout Blows at Luftwaffe; Local Boards Cut Draft Deferments

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Burma—With Jap shells popping overhead, Lt. Gen. Joseph Stilwell (center, right) and Chinese-American troops take cover in deep ravine in north Burma. (See Far East.)

IRELAND: Faces Isolation

Because Ireland lies so hard by Britain, the latter has always looked upon it as sort of necessary adjunct of Britain's defense, and long and bitter have been the controversies between the two countries over the question of its sovereignty.

De Valera

Following Premier Eamon de Valera's refusal on the ground that the Axis diplomats were being watched, Britain banned travel to Ireland, and promised to further isolate Ireland from all outside connections.

FAR EAST: Racing Weather

As Lieut. Gen. Joseph Stilwell's Chinese and American troops fought through Burma's rugged northwest clearing a route to embattled China, the U. S. announced it has stocked up more than $160,000,000 of guns, munitions and tanks in India for eventual shipment to Chiang Kai-shek.

In Burma, General Stilwell and British-Indian troops to the south sought to strengthen their foothold along the mountainous western border as a springboard for future attack before the merciless windy-rainy monsoon season sets in, to continue until fall.

In announcing that the U. S. has piled up $40,391,000 of guns, $77,871,000 of munitions and $42,197,000 of tanks in India for shipment to China upon the opening of routes, Foreign Economic Administrator Leo T. Crowley said that of total lend-lease aid given thus far to Chiang Kai-shek, about $104,000,000 was for aircraft, machinery, medicines, services, etc.

EUROPE: Luftwaffe Target

With Allied forces massing in the British Isles and Axis chieftains predicting the early invasion of western Europe, U. S. and British aircraft kept up their heavy raids over the continent, aimed at knocking out the German Luftwaffe.

By beating down Nazi fighters and blowing up their aircraft factories, the Allies hoped to decrease opposition to landing operations and resistance to bombardment of other Axis industries.

In Italy, the Allied air force was equally busy, smashing at the Nazis' defense installations in southern France, and at railroads and highways up and down the length of the peninsula, used to supply embattled enemy troops at Anzio and Cassino, where bottomless mud slowed ground operations.

SOLDIER VOTE: Congressional Bill

Once having denounced compromise on soldier vote legislation embodying state supervision, President Roosevelt was faced with the alternative of approving such a measure assured of passage in congress or risking another veto overriding.

Latest soldier vote bill assured of passage allows use of the short federal ballot for President, senator and congressman by servicemen overseas if their states provide no absentee vote or they have not received state ballots by October 1, and their governors certify use of the federal ballot.

RUSSIA: Active Diplomacy While Russia insisted that Finland only could have an armistice by interning German troops in the country and recognizing the 1940 borders, Moscow's busy diplomatic corps moved on two other fronts.

Even as Italy's Communists cried for the removal of King Victor Emmanuel and Marshal Badoglio, Russia formally recognized their government by consenting to exchange ambassadors with them, even though the U. S. and Britain have withheld similar action.

Russia's promotion of Tito Broz's Partisan cause in Jugoslavia where he has been feuding with Rightist Gen. Draga Mihailovitch, gained impetus when Mihailovitch's ambassador in Moscow jumped into Broz's camp, and Jugoslavs in Russia were organized into an army swearing allegiance to Broz.

Gain in South Transferring their pressure from the Baltic to the south almost 600 miles distant, Russian forces under General Malinovsky cleared the Dnieper river port of Kherson, at the eastern end of the long German line stretched far to the rear of the Reds' positions in Poland.

As General Malinovsky's troops fought into Kherson, other Russian forces under General Zhukov worked on the big Nazi bulge farther to the northwest, chewing into German lines at three points.

Already deep in prewar Poland, the Reds not only were close to Rumania, but also stood about 100 miles east of old Czechoslovakia and less than that from Hungary.

DRAFT: Cut Deferments

Ordered not to grant deferments to men in the 18 to 21 age group since February 1, the nation's draft boards were told to extend the policy to others within the 22 to 25 limit.

Under the new regulations, men in these age brackets will be eligible for deferment only if the state director deems their services vital to critical war production, or if they are holding jobs specifically exempted by the national draft director.

Cut in deferments for the 18 to 25 age group followed draft boards' failure to meet induction quotas because of the hesitancy in taking fathers and also because of the army's preference for younger men.

HIGHLIGHTS . . . In the week's news

SHIP-BUILDING: New warships will be added to the U. S. fleet at the rate of a dozen a day during the remainder of the year, Secretary of the Navy Knox stated. This figure is for seagoing vessels only, and does not include small auxiliary ships and landing craft. By the end of the year the navy will consist of more than 3,000,000 men, he added.

AXIS WEAPONS: Japanese and German artillery and small arms are inferior as compared with American equipment, tests of captured weapons reveal. About 600,000 pieces of ordnance have been tried in firing and other tests at the seven U. S. army arsenals. It was found that the Japanese rifle is inaccurate at ranges over 350 yards, in contrast to the American Garand.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS

THE LAND OF OPPORTUNITY

How this rich farm land fits into the picture of tomorrow.

HERE INDUSTRY IS THE PARTNER OF AGRICULTURE

Nation's Packing Center

Great Industrial Center

Hub of America's Transportation

Major Market of the Nation

Important Financial Center

Plentiful Electric Power

Located in the heart of the most productive agricultural section in America, this area of Northern Illinois is noted for its farming diversification.

Here are thousands of rich dairy farms that supply the great Chicago milk shed. Here are poultry farms that have grown in size and number to help meet America's wartime needs. Here, too, are farm-lands where hogs, cattle and sheep thrive... where grain and produce grow in abundance.

In addition to the advantages nature bestowed, this agricultural region has many favorable economic factors. It is the largest packing center and the greatest grain and livestock market in the world. It is the hub of the nation's transportation and a financial capital.

Yes, Chicago and Northern Illinois is a rich agricultural center, today. And it is tomorrow's Land of Opportunity—not only for the farmer, but for the worker and the industrialist as well.

Prisoner of War

If it is your unhappy lot to see these fateful words regarding one of your loved ones in a government telegram, to whom can you turn for help in communicating with him?

What Did You Do Today?

By Lt. Dean Shatlain, Tank Commander
(Written on an African battlefield)

What did you do today, my friend,
From morning till the night?
How many times did you complain
That rationing is too tight?
When are you going to start to do
All of the things you say?
A soldier would like to know, my friend,
What did you do today?
We met the enemy today
And took the town by storm.
Happy reading is will make
For you tomorrow morn.
You'll read with satisfaction
The brief communique,
We fought, but are you fighting?
What did you do today?
My gunner died in my arms today,
I feel his warm blood yet,
Your neighbor's dying boy gave out
A cry I'll never forget.
On my right a tank was hit,
A flash and then a fire,
The stench of burning flesh
Still rises from the pyre.
What did you do today, my friend,
To help us with the task?
Did you work harder and longer for less,
Or is it too much to ask?
What right have I to ask you this,
You probably will say,
Maybe now you'll understand,
You see . . . I died today.

(Lt Shatlain amputated his own foot with a jackknife and thought he was dying as he wrote this poem. He was rescued by Americans after two hours of hiding and is now recuperating in a hospital in England.)
